Are there any restrictions on cover?

- Endorsements may apply to your policy. Please refer to your policy schedule for details of these
- This policy only provides cover for you whilst you are learning to drive. Once you have passed your driving test, all cover stops, and the policy must be cancelled.
- The policy is designed to provide cover only for you whilst learning to drive in a car which is owned by you, a friend or member of your family. If you do not own the car you are learning to drive in, the owner and keeper must ensure the car separately throughout the duration of this insurance as this policy will not cover them.
- This policy only covers you whilst you are being supervised to learn to drive and the supervisor in the passenger seat is aged 25 or over, has held a full UK Driving Licence for 3 years or more, must be a UK resident for a minimum of 2 years and does not have a DR coded motoring conviction (for Drink or Drugs offences) endorsed on their driving licence within last 5 years
- Any compulsory or voluntary policy excess which applies as shown in the policy schedule
- If you choose not to use our approved vehicle repairer an additional £250 excess applies
- Third Party Property Damage claims limit - £20,000,000

Where am I covered?

- ✓ Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man, the islands of Guernsey, Jersey and Alderney.

What are my obligations?

- You must take reasonable care to provide complete and accurate answers to the questions asked when you take out, make changes to, or renew your policy
- You must notify us as soon as you pass your driving test as this policy only provides cover whilst you are learning to drive
- Keep your vehicle in a safe and roadworthy condition, including having a valid MOT where required by law
- You must tell us without delay about any event that could lead to a claim and send to us unanswered, any letter, claim, writ or summons you receive
- You are required to display at all times L plates whilst driving. The letter L must conform to the Driver & Vehicle Standards Agency (DVSA) current statutory guidance for L plate sizes and appear as red on a white background, in clearly visible vertical positions to the front and rear of the car. "L" Plates should be removed or covered when not being driven by you.

When and How do I pay?

Terms and conditions of payment are agreed with your insurance broker

When does the cover start and end?

As this is a short-period policy, the start and end dates are agreed with your insurance broker

How do I cancel the contract?

You have the right to cancel your policy at any time during the policy term. To cancel your policy please contact your Insurance broker. As this policy is designed to be in force for a short period of time, there are no refunds of premium given if the policy is cancelled during the term of cover, outside of the 14 day cooling off period. Once you have entered into this insurance contract with us, you are entitled to 14 days to decide whether you wish to proceed. This 14-day period will commence from either the inception date of the contract or the date on which you receive the full terms and conditions of the contract, whichever is later. Provided a claim has not been made, a pro-rata charge will be made for the cover we have provided plus an administration fee of £25 excluding insurance premium tax. Further information regarding the procedure for cancelling your policy is contained in our Policy Document under 'General Conditions'.

Please note that provision of this cooling-off period does not apply if the duration of your policy cover is either 7 or 28 days.

Where a claim has occurred, no refund of premium will be allowed
